Jennifer Urban, currently a freshman at Ole Miss majoring in Public Policy and Political Science, is also a student of dance at the New Albany School of Ballet and Dance Arts.

In addition to being focused on school this year, Jennifer also holds the title of Miss Littleton in her home state of Colorado. Therefore, she will be continuing on to compete in the Miss Colorado Pageant in Westminster, Colorado this June 22 and 23, 2008.

Since Jennifer has a strong background in dance training focusing on ballet, jazz, and pom squad, she is using dance as her talent.

She has 10 years of dance experience and because of Justine Stewart's expertise in ballet and jazz specifically, she chose to continue her dance education with Stewart, director at the New Albany School of Ballet and Dance Arts.

In Jennifer's talent program at the Miss Colorado Pageant she will be performing to "Anyway you Want It" by Journey, choreographed by Justine Stewart, in hopes of advancing to the Miss America Pageant.
